As the Roosevelt administration moves deeper into war, the more it calls up its reserves. For instance, A. Phillip Randolph around the Lend-Lease Bill, is practically demanding that the Negro people get behind all aid to Britain, under the guise that Britain is fighting a war for democracy. While Mr. Randolph professes to know that the British gangsters are also robbers, as much so as the German gangsters, at the same time he comes to the conclusion that the British robbers are better than the German robbers. A. Philip Randolph seems to have forgotten his declaration at the National Negro Congress in April, when he stated:

"But what of Great Britain and France? Should the Negro and darker people look to them for freedom and justice? The answer is written large and in unmistakable terms in the long, tragic history of the fingers of England and France dripping with the blood of black, yellow and brown colonials. England and France have stolen the land and labor of black men in Africa, brown and yellow men in India and China, and with arrogance and pomp, abused and insulted these helpless peoples until they are well-nigh stung to revolt."

I shall not attempt here to give a detailed analysis of the conditions of the colonies, suffice to say that the people of India are forced to live on an annual wage of $12 a year; that the people of Ireland, each time they ask for freedom, are met with machine guns and cannon. The question of Africa can be summarized in one sentence taken from Leonard Woolf, speaking for the British bourgeoisie in his book, 'Empire and Commerce in Africa': "If slaves are no longer taken from Africa, slavery may be taken to Africa".

Contrast this if you will with the position Hitler takes against Czechoslovakia, Poland, or any other conquered area. That Hitler has announced this policy of racial oppression, and that the British bourgeoisie are too crafty to announce theirs, does not in any way entice us to aid the British gangsters any more than the German gangsters.

I dealt with the position of A. Philip Randolph not because he is the only misleader among the Negro people, but first, he is the most influential misleader operating among the Negro people, and secondly, he is the main ideological leader of social-democratism among the Negro people. He is a member of Norman Thomas' Socialist Party. He and his kind are the Sidney Hillmans and Dubinskys among Negroes and therefore must be combatted.

FIGHT JIM-CROW IN INDUSTRY

Never before, since the days of the Scottsboro boys and the anti-lynch campaign, have the masses of Negro people in the United States been so indignant as they are today over the discrimination in the armed forces and in the National Defense industries. From the South we read of church after church holding mass meetings of protest against this. In Chattanooga, Tennessee, only last week, 25 Negro ministers sent in a signed letter to the War Department protesting against Negro discrimination. From the very first, these spontaneous protests assumed such proportions that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was forced to send on tour its National Secretary to gauge the sentiment of the Negro people. As a result of this, a proposal was made for nation-wide meetings and demonstrations on January 26th. Here in Los Angeles we had a meeting of about 1200 people who, despite the tactics of the leaders, expressed their mass indignation and a real desire to struggle against this viciousness.
